

WSAIOP FALL CONFERENCE "OUR CHANGING LANDSCAPE"
OCTOBER 2ND AND 3RD, 2015

Quality Inn and Conference Center
1700 Canyon Road
Ellensburg, WA I-90 exit 109

Call the hotel to get the special room rate for conference attendees 509-925-9800.

Early registration

WSAIOP member, $90 CDPWS member, $90 Student, $90 Nonmember $120

Registration after 9/25/15

WSAIOP member, $100 CDPWS member, $100 Student, $100 Nonmember $130

Name _____ Contact# _____

Organization: _____ Email: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Fee enclosed: $ _____

Register now but pay when I arrive

A person who joins WSAIOP or CDPWS during early registration only pays $90 for the whole conference!
Membership will be verified at the conference

Mail registration to Sharon Fenton
13353 Bel-Red Road, Suite 101
Bellevue, WA 98005

Questions? Contact Sharon at 425-289-1600 or sharon@assesstreat.com

WSAIOP FALL CONFERENCE Oct 2nd & 3rd, 2015
Washington State Association of Independent Outpatient Providers, and Chemical Dependency Professionals of Washington State

“OUR CHANGING LANDSCAPE”

Topics Include: MARIJUANA EMERGING NATURAL AND SYNTHETIC DRUGS OF ABUSE
LAW AND ETHICS COUNSELOR LAW CHANGES CLINICAL SUPERVISION
COUNSELOR SELF CARE SUICIDE RISK ASSESSMENT (MEETS 3HR WAC REQUIREMENT)

FEATURED PRESENTERS

Eric Martin, MAC, CADC III, CRM, CPS, is the Past President and Director Emeritus of the Addiction Counselor Certification Board of Oregon (ACCBO). He is an adjunct faculty member with the University of Oregon and a contract instructor with Oregon’s Child welfare Division. Eric is a state and nationally certified addictions counselor with 29 years of clinical experience in Inpatient psychiatric hospitalization, residential and outpatient addictions treatment, and prevention. He is an international presenter, has served on several Governor’s advisory boards, and has produced a number of videos currently being used nationwide. He is the recipient of the Governor’s Council Award of Excellence and the NADAAC Award for sustained and Meritorious service at the national level to the profession of addiction counseling.

Rose Ness, LMHC, CDP received her MA in Systems Counseling from Bastyr University in 2001, and a BS in Developmental Psychology from Eastern Washington University in 1995. As a consultant, she specializes in SBIRT, Suicide Prevention, Clinical Supervision, Co-Occurring Disorders, and Counselor Ethics. She has received the Pioneer Human Services Dick Hudson award for Outstanding Counselor, is a member of the Skagit Valley County Behavioral Advisory Board, an Adjunct instructor at Skagit Valley College, and was a member of the ITA task force in 2014. She has been a CDP since 1997, and a Licensed Mental Health Counselor since 2005.

Kelly Olson, PhD, is the Associate Director of Clinical Affairs at Millennium Health. She is an experienced researcher in molecular neuro-pharmacology, as well as in clinical biology in the areas of mental illness, sleep, adrenal fatigue, and addictions. Dr. Olson has authored/co-authored a number of peer-reviewed articles, book chapters, and presentations, and has lectured extensively internationally, nationally, and locally. Dr. Olson has spent the majority of the past 7 years in integrative medicine, helping to improve patient clinical outcomes.

Mark Loes, MBA, CDP is the Quality Assurance Manager at Sundown M. Ranch, the president of the Washington Department of Health CDP Advisory Committee, and a CARF surveyor. As a surveyor, he has experienced many treatment modalities in different states, and is well versed in state and federal laws relating to counselors

Sharon Fenton, BSW, CDP is the Clinical Director of Assessment & Treatment Associates. She graduated with a Bachelor’s Degree in Social Work in 1993 and became certified as a CDP in 1996. She is also an instructor at Bellevue College in the Alcohol and Drug Counseling program teaching classes on DUI assessment, Family Systems, and Introduction to Counseling.

Guadalupe Aragon, BA, CADC I received her Bachelor’s Degree from U.C. Berkeley. She is a Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor 1, President of the Chemical Dependency Training Consortium of the Northwest, a Recovery Coach, and a Transformative Life Coach. As the founder of Grace On You, LLC, she specializes in self care, brief intervention and counseling, and teaching healthy living skills.